The Lost and Disorganized Pianist

Your answer is now your clue. Take it back to the original puzzle. Even a spoiled brat could figure this one out as long as they paid some attention to their music lessons. (This puzzle requires note reading. Please see the music tip sheet if nobody in your group can read music.)

Too Much Triangle

A triangle is a basic geometric shape. Take one of the most important numbers in geometry, rationalize it the way most people have done hundreds of thousandths of times before, and take it back to the original puzzle as your new clue. When you figure it out, then do what it says.

♪ Do

Use Pi as 3.14159 and take those measure numbers from the original puzzle. Repeat.

Music Arranging

Today, music clefs have a standard position on the staff. However, when they first started being used, they could be shifted to point to any line on the staff. What do you make of this? When you figure it out, you might feel moved to do a happy dance! (For you musical types, you need to think beyond the musical alphabet.)

Caesar shift from G (G Clef) and F (F Clef).

Jazz Witches

Your answer is now your clue. Use it on the vocal part that the rude guitarist transcribed. However, I don't think that's an appropriate food choice for that particular insect... (This puzzle requires note reading. Please see the music tip sheet if nobody in your group can read music.)

Four Score

A musical score for 'The Gettysburg Address' in G clef and 4/4 time. The lyrics are written below the notes. Several slurs are drawn across groups of notes, and some of these slurs are circled in red. The lyrics are:

Four score and se - ven years a - go our fa - thers brought forth on this con - ti - nent a new na - tion con - ce - ived in Li - ber - ty, and
